Largo Times

C'mon, join the fun

DOUGLAS R. CLIFFORD | Times

Ronnie Card, 9, of Tampa, is coaxed to join Sunday's walkathon while visiting with Nurse Bandi Aid (Jenny Naegele), of Seminole, and Jeremy Keyser, 6, of Largo at the TEAM Hydrocephalus' Walkathon at Largo Central Park. Ronnie and Jeremy, who both have hydrocephalus, were joined by about 100 people in raising money for the national Hydrocephalus Association. The Hydrocephalus Association Tampa Bay is based in Largo. Hydrocephalus, sometimes known as "water on the brain," causes a range of symptoms, including convulsions and retardation.
